

The human race

in the 20th Century

is witnessing

a f r a g m e n t
a t i o n

UNPRECEDENTED.

THE FALL

Where ARE we Going?

of the church

frag-mented

the Western religious cosmos

EINSTEIN

FRAGMENTED

THE clockwork universe

of science

the political cosmos

frets and frays

at COMMUNISM? CAPITALISM (TWEEDLEDEE? TWEEDLEDUM)

NATIONALISM / COLONIALISM

ETC.

(madness)

ETC.

frag-mentation of the cosmos

feeds on and of

frag-mentation of the self psychology

is split

(a sign of the split self)

there are

as many psychologies

as there are

psychologists

all through the world

crying in the wilderness people are beginning to realize they do not know who they are

who am I

(is there an answer?)

the search for identity
must be a search of
and for
-the cosmos-

and must begin with a statement of the problem

(as we have done):

WHY IS THE COSMOS
FRAGMENTED?

WHY IS THERE
DISORDER?

WHY IS LIFE
DEAD?

god is dead
beatles is dead
home is dead
che is dead
marx is dead
sky is dead
kennedy is dead
hendrix is dead
marilyn is dead
janis is dead
country is dead
olympian is dead
camus is dead
king is dead
self is dead
beauty is dead

stating the problem

is the first and most necessary

step

let us now
find a center,
and thus the whole
that dispels
disorder

this however is not merely a statement,

BUT A COMMAND
FOR ONE BEGINS

by asking,

WHAT IS THE CENTER OF MY LIFE?

IS THIS WHAT YOU THINK?

YOU must ask yourself

the following

if you would find your center

your cosmos

yourself

what are my values?

what do i count good?

what have i done with my life?

who do i love?

what do i love?

HOW IS MY LIFE?

did you come up with any answers?

are you sure of your answers?

will you be sure tomorrow?

if you are

ABSOLUTELY SURE

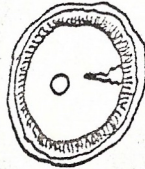

OF ALL YOUR ANSWERS

throw this book away

IF, however,

you still have some questions,

CONTINUE ASKING

ASK EVERYTHING

ASK EVERYONE

ASK EVERYWHERE

ASK

ASK

ASK

FOR THOSE WHO KNOW THE ANSWERS

are either gods

or fools

and the one truth is:

truth grows

by searching and searches

by growing
